CARD.—No repertoire of any pretensions can be considered complete without the two operas of Don Giovanni and the BARBER of SEVILLA. Its, therefore, natural that the directions, who have amonomed their determination of making the present on the certain of the present of the present of the present on these two masterpleces.

The BARBER OF SULLA unquestionably is the best opera of the gifted Rossial and invariably draws the very greatest houses if brought out in a satisfied enamer. Since the present of the present of stowed upon him, there has been a great Rossinian revival all storer Europe. Nearly in every principal city, but particularly in Paris. London, Vienna and St. Petersburg, Rossinian fearitable taken place in honor of the wonderful composer, the father of the essentially Italian opera, for which purpose the Barber of Sevilla has been selected.

The excellence of the present company, the majority of which are Reasinian singers, enables the directors to get up a gala performance of the BARBER OF SEVILLA, which they have no doubt will be received with great satisfaction by opera goers. Mme. GASSIER, one of the very best Rosinss, will sing the principal roles—a role which had the foundation of hee London reputation. Signor BRIGNOZII SAlmaviva has always been admired.
